GENERAL COUNSEL OF THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20301

25 JAN 1983

Honorable David A. Stockman
Director, Office of Management and Budget
Washington, D.C. 20503

Dear Mr. Stockman:

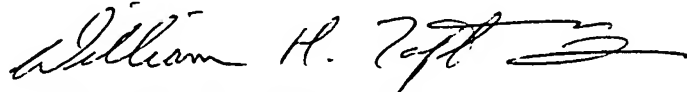

The attached legislative proposal, DOD 98-94, "To strengthen and improve the management of civilian personnel within the Defense Intelligence Agency," is forwarded for review in accordance with Office of Management and Budget Circular A-19.

This proposal is essentially identical to that contained in ~~S. 2488, 97th Congress, passed by the Senate on May 5, 1982,~~ but not acted on by the House of Representatives prior to adjournment of the 97th Congress.

On July 6, 1982, in response to a request from the House Post Office and Civil Service Committee for departmental reports on S. 2488, we submitted to you for clearance a proposed report expressing support for the bill. The Office of Personnel Management also submitted a proposed report on the bill. The Office of Personnel Management report did not object to the purpose of the bill but found that certain changes were necessary. ~~In order to accomplish the changes recommended by the Office of Personnel Management report, the proposal DOD 98-94 that we are submitting includes clarifying changes and technical and conforming amendments added to section 3.~~

Advice is requested as to the relationship of the proposal to the Administration's program.

Sincerely,

William H. Taft, IV
